"Showed Him Up."

TALKS TO DENVER MEN

Ex-President's Lack of Forgiveness Brings Retort.Financier Declares His Statement, that Agitation Against Railways Would Do Great Harm, Has Been Proved Correct—Would Gather the Weak Lines Together, if Prison Did Not Attend Such Action.Denver, March 30.—In a talk with business men here to-day E. H. Harriman said:"Five years ago I told President Roosevelt that he was wrong and that he would have many imitators in various States and cities who would do the country incalculable harm in agitating against the railroads, and what I told him then has been proved correct."Roosevelt was quoted yesterday in a dispatch sent from the Azores, as saying:
'I can never forgive Mr. Harriman.'"I don't know what he meant by that," said Harriman, and his sharp, restless eyes lighted up with a peculiar glow, "unless it was because I showed him up.""Yes, Roosevelt was wrong in his fight on me and the railroads," said Mr. Harriman, "and the truth of this is getting clearer every day. If we could we would throw our cloak over the weaker lines throughout the country, and begin immediately the expenditures of between $250-000,000 and $300,000,000 to improve them. But we would all be put in prison if we tried it.""I believe the attention of the public should be turned away from the corporations and toward the management of city, State, and national governments.""What we have been endeavoring to do with railroads is to get a better article at less cost. If the government would pay attention to producing better administration at less cost they would all be better off.""The best way in managing governments is just the same as in managing railroads, and that is to produce a better article of government at less cost."

EXISTENCE OF TRUST DENIED.

Marc Klaw Testifies in Libel Suit Against Newspaper.New York, March 30.—In the rooms of the hearing on the criminal libel charge against Ervin Wardman, editor of the New York Press, before Magistrate Crane to-day, in which Marc Klaw, of the theatrical firm of Klaw & Erlanger, is the complaining witness, Mr. Klaw's memory became so defective that the hearing was adjourned to give him an opportunity to consult his accounts. He denied a trust existed.The complaint is based upon a paragraph to the effect that Charles Jefferson, son of the late Joseph Jefferson, furnished the money for the original ventures of the firm and was forced out.In giving the membership of the booking agency that has been called a trust, Mr. Klaw mentioned the names of Messrs.
Nixon and Zimmerman, of Philadelphia; Charles Frohman, Mr. Erlanger, and himself.

ELLIS AFTER BEEF TRUST.

Assistant Attorney General Investigates Suits in Chicago.Chicago, March 30.—The best trust investigation by the Federal government was revived with vigor to-day, when Assistant Attorney General Wade Ellis reached Chicago and conferred with District Attorney Edwin W. Sims and Special Counsel James Wilkinson.Despite reports that the inquiry was to be dropped, it developed that the inquiry has only just begun. Upon this point Mr. Ellis had much to tell Mr. Sims.
Later he attended the hearing of testimony in the suit for dissolution of the powder trust, and before he returns East he may hear testimony in the tobacco trust case.

BERTHA KRUPP UNHAPPY.

Daughter of German Gunmaker May Soon Seek Divorce.Berlin, March 30.—It is reported at Essen that there is probability of divorce proceedings between Herr von Bohlen und Halbach and his wife, who was Bertha Krupp, elder daughter of the great German gunmaker and ironmaster.
It is reported that the couple have been leading an unhappy life together for some time, especially since the death of their infant son, about two months ago.

TECUMSEH'S BODY FOUND.

Remains of Famous Indian Chief Unearthed After a Century.New York, March 30.—While digging for the foundation of the New Russell Sage memorial church, at Crestwood, near Far Rockaway, workmen unearthed a casket containing the body of Tecumseh, the great Indian chief, who was buried here more than one hundred years ago.The casket, which was of metal, was removed to the Far Rockaway police station. The body was in good condition.Bill Regulates Liquor Sales.
Austin, Tex., March 30.—A bill has been introduced in the legislature by Representative Mason, prohibiting the sale of liquor in Texas in less quantities than a quart, and requiring that the jugs containing the liquor must be perfectly sealed when the sale is made.Highest Cash Prices Paid

NO LOCK-OUT FOR MINERS.

Expiration of Agreement to Cause No Immediate Change.Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 30.—Although the agreement between the mine workers and the anthracite coal operators expires to-morrow night, the mines will continue working without any changes in wages or working conditions for an indefinite period. This was practically stated by officials of almost all of the large coal companies in the region this afternoon, and the news will be a great relief to thousands of mine workers, who expected to be locked out by the operators as soon as the agreement expired.The operators expect the mine workers will remain idle on April 1 to celebrate the winning by the union of the eight-hour day in the soft coal region, as they have been ordered to do by President Lewis, of the United Mine Workers, but the mines will be ready to resume operations on Friday and Saturday.

ANGRY MOB LYNCHES NEGRO.

Letter to White Man's Wife Leads to Quick Vengeance.Waco, Tex., March 30.—Joe Reddin, twenty years old, a negro, was hanged to a telegraph pole by a mob of 300 enraged white men at Dawson to-day. The body was later cut down and taken away by the young negro's friends.Reddin is alleged to have written and delivered an insulting letter to the wife of a young farmer near Dawson. Her husband was away, and she reported the matter to neighbors, who soon had the negro under arrest, and took him to Dawson, ten miles away. A mob took Reddin from the jail. They kept the officers away until he had been hanged.

SCORES TALIAFERRO'S RECORD

Senator from Florida Assailed by Georgia Merchant.Connection with Monopoly Charged.
Hint Is Made of Standard Oil Assistance.Savannah, Ga., March 30.—Because of attacks in the Senate on the American Naval Stores Company by Senator Taliaferro, of Florida, the record of the Senator is bitterly assailed to-day in an open letter given out by President Nash, of the Naval Stores Company.President Nash says Taliaferro is attacking the American company in order to get a monopoly of the naval stores business for a concern in which he (Taliaferro) has a financial interest. President Nash accuses the Senator of having received large dividends from the Atlantic Investment Company, a concern which was declared to be in restraint of trade, and gives pictures of the checks used in payment of these dividends.It is also charged by Mr. Nash that while the Senator held stock in both the American Investment Company and the Consolidated Naval Stores Company, one representing the producers and the other the factor, he tried to put through a plan to force the producer to sell his stock to the investment company at a half-cent a gallon below the market quotations.
This is cited as a case of double-dealing on the Senator's part. It is also asserted that the Senator violated the confidence of Attorney General Bonaparte by reading to the Senate a private letter from that official.President Nash concludes by asking the Senator if it is not true that a hand very close to the Standard Oil Company gave him financial assistance during his last race.The letter has created a sensation throughout the turpentine belt.Senator Taliaferro said last night that he had been unable to get a copy of the letter of President Nash, but that he had written to friends in the South for it, and expected to have it in a few days.He said he was notified that such a letter had been written several days ago, but declined to discuss it further than to characterize it as a "villainous piece of work."

PRIEST DIES ON HIS ALTAR.

Father Robert Burned to Death While at Prayer.Providence, R. I., March 30.—Rev. Edward E. Robert, for ten years pastor of St. Charles Borromeo Church, this city, was burned to death on the altar in the chapel at his home in Norwood this morning.Although there were two other persons in the house with Father Robert last night, they knew nothing of the tragedy that was enacted in the little chapel over their rooms. They heard the priest get out of bed some time during the night, and supposed he was going to pray. This morning the housekeeper, Mrs. Malloux, went to the chapel to make it ready for the mass which was celebrated daily. She was horrified to find the charred and naked body lying in a kneeling position before the altar.Pieces of a broken lamp showed that Father Robert had gone to the chapel to pray, and was nearly on the altar when the lamp at his side exploded. His light clothing ignited, and he must have been overcome before he could move from the spot. Father Robert was sixty years old.HENRY GRISWOLD COMMITTS SUICIDEProminent Anacostian Kills Himself with Shotgun.

KNOWN FOR HIS CHARITY

Had Done Much for Community, in Which He Was Esteemed.Police Investigate Murder Theory and Find Victim of Melancholia Pulled Fatal Trigger with Stove Poker—Had Sent Wife on Errand to the City—Man of Means, and Had Charge of Valuable Estate.Stretched on the floor in an attic at his home, Mount View, Anacostia, yesterday, Henry A. Griswold, prominent citizen and philanthropist, was found by his wife—a suicide.Using a double-barreled shotgun, the trigger of which he pulled by means of a stove poker, Mr. Griswold shot himself above the heart shortly after 4 o'clock in the afternoon.On account of the peculiar circumstances surrounding the tragedy, the police at first suspected murder. An investigation by detectives, and the inquest held by the coroner at 5 o'clock, dispelled all thought of foul play.So quietly had the deed been planned that residents living in the neighborhood did not learn of the suicide until last evening. Mr. Griswold had been despondent for the last few days, and had mentioned that he might shoot himself.Had a Nervous Collapse.
Friends to whom he confided his nervous collapse were not alarmed when they saw him working in his grounds yesterday. He sent his wife to the city about 2 o'clock to transact some financial business, and she was away at the time he killed himself. The last person to see him alive was Frank G. Lindsay, of 121 Mount View place, who went to the Griswold home about 2 o'clock to borrow garden tools.Mr. Lindsay passed Mrs. Griswold as she was leaving the west gate, and inquired where he could find her husband. He was told Mr. Griswold was in the kitchen.
Entering the kitchen, Lindsay found Mr.
Griswold sitting at a table. He heartily agreed to lend his tools, and even accompanied him to the barn, where the articles were procured. After conversing for a time, Mr. Lindsay, accompanied by a little girl, left the place, and Mr.
Griswold remained to tend to his chickens.Earlier in the day Mr. Griswold told Nelson Green, an old negro who had worked on the place for years, that he was despondent."My nerves are just gone," he added.
He carried a basket of eggs to friends in Washington before noon. As he passed acquaintances on his way home, his hands were folded behind his back. He did not recognize those who greeted him.Talked About Suicide.
John Bell, carriage painter, who was his closest friend, said last night that Mr. Griswold asked him several days ago what he thought about "shooting himself."Bell replied that although he was as old as Mr. Griswold, he preferred to remain in this world as long as he could.
"I guess you are right," Griswold responded to have replied.No letter or explanation was left by the suicide. It is supposed he suddenly made up his mind to end his life. His wife returned home about 4:30 o'clock and looked about the house to tell Mr.
Griswold of her transactions. Failing to locate him on the first floor, she removed her hat and coat and went on the porch.
A visit to the second floor was made, it being supposed he was asleep.
When she failed to find him, and hearing no reply to her call, she ascended the narrow stairs to the attic, and on opening the door found him lying dead.Mrs. Griswold called for help and, half fainting, ran downstairs. Neighbors, hearing her cries, ran up the hill to the house, and applied first aid remedies to restore the fainting woman. Dr. Mundell, who was called, pronounced her sane.

CREW OF SEVENTEEN LOST.

Men Believed to Have Perished in Burning Steamer.Havana, March 30.—It is now thought that a number of the crew of the steamer Altenburg, which was burned here yesterday, were lost. They include first officer Rudolf Horn, third engineer Carl Wit-kopp, the steward, cook, cabin boy, four white members of the crew, and eight St.
Thomas negroes.The Altenburg and her cargo are a total loss, amounting to about $200,000. The aggregate losses amount to $1,000,000.

VON BUELOW NOT TO RESIGN.

Germany's Chancellor Addresses Reichstag in Fighting Mood.Berlin, March 30.—Chancellor von Buelow was in a fighting mood this afternoon when he spoke in the Reichstag on the dissensions in the government bloc.
He said he had not the slightest intention of resigning, and meant to keep his post as chancellor as long as he possessed, as he did now, the full confidence of the Kaiser. So little were party considerations troubling him that he spent last night, he said, in reading Goethe, from whom he gave some quotations to the house.Four Killed in Wreck.
Torreón, Mexico, March 30.—A freight train wrecked on the International Railroad, near Hidalgo, resulted in the death of W. H. Hoagland, the American engineer, formerly of Bowling Green, Ohio; Ed. Ritter, an American brakeman, and two Mexican coal passers.Beautiful, Fully Developed Flowers.

PITTSBURG MAY "OPEN WIDE."

Appointments by New Mayor Cause Loud Protests.Pittsburg, March 30.—Pittsburg threw a fit politically to-day when the cabinet of William Magee, who on next Monday will be installed as mayor of greater Pittsburg, was announced, and it will be hard to convince the public now that United States Senator Boies Penrose, of Philadelphia, will not run the city government.John M. Morin, one of the leading saloon keepers of Pittsburg and a very close personal friend of Senator Penrose, has been made head of the department of public safety, which seems to insure a wide open town. Samurj Grenet has been made delinquent tax collector of the city, and the shout raised over this is loud, since Grenet, who came into Pittsburg with the advent of Allegheny, was convicted years ago of running a gambling house on that side of the river. Charles A. O'Brien, once a leading Democrat, has been appointed city solicitor by the incoming Republican mayor.

STOCK FOR OIL TRUST.

Increased Capital, How? Must Await Court's Decision.New York, March 30.—Reports that the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is contemplating an increase of its capitalization from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000 or $300,000,000, it was stated to-day, forecast an action which the company may take at some time, but which is not to be dealt with in the immediate future.It was explained that the suit brought by the government for the dissolution of the company, argument on which comes up April 1, must first be passed on, as the difficulties incident to the process of dissolution would be greatly increased should an adverse decision be rendered against the company after it had augmented its capitalization.

FIREMAN KILLS ENGINEER.

Latter Charges Intoxication and Is Shot Dead.Memphis, March 30.—C. A. Lawler, engineer on the Mobile, Jackson, and Kansas City Railroad, was shot and instantly killed by his fireman, Boone Duff, because Lawler refused to make the train unless another man was given him, charging Duff with intoxication.Lawler, who was one of the road's most trusted passenger engineers, was awaiting the arrival of the train that he was to take with his engine from Louisiville, Miss., when the fireman showed up.
Lawler, as once said that the engine was unfit for duty, and the fireman that he declined to take out the train unless another fireman was supplied. Duff responded angrily, and hastening home, secured his pistol. Returning to the yards, he climbed into the cab and shot Lawler dead.

MINE BOSS IS TORTURED.

Foreigner Confesses Discrimination Against American.Brazil, Ind., March 30.—Discrimination by their inability to get work in the mines, a number of miners of Illinois to-day captured a foreigner, who is known as a room boss, placed a noose around his neck, and leading him to a tree, were about to strangle him, in order to get a confession from him regarding the buying and selling of rooms in the mines. The boss is said to have made a full admission of guilt.The miners charge that in mines where American miners have been told there is no room to be dug out, the foreigners are given good rooms as fast as their old ones are worked out, and that even now foreigners are brought in and put to work.

TWO SOLDIERS ESCAPE.

Elude Thirty Guards While Awaiting Trial at Fort.New York, March 30.—Two soldiers who were awaiting trial at Fort Hamilton escaped to-day in broad daylight while more than thirty guards were near.James Duffy, who deserted from the Fifteenth Cavalry some time ago, walked into the fort two weeks ago and gave himself up. Joseph Williamson, of the Third Company, Coast Artillery, stabbed a man last Saturday. Both of these men were held at the fort for trial. Sometimes they got a steel saw and cut the iron bar from the cell window.

MORE INDIANA COUNTRIES DRY.

Local Option in Three Districts Wins for Temperance.Indianapolis, March 30.—Bartholomew by 80 majority, Jennings by 518, and Ver-million by 854 is the record made by the "dry" in to-day's local option elections in three counties.The hardest battle of the day was fought in Vermillion County, to which twenty-five automobiles were sent by the liquor interests of Terre Haute to help get the foreign vote to the polls.

ROOSEVELT IS SAFE.

Story of Attempt Made on His Life Is Denied.London, March 30.—A dispatch from Ponta Delgada, Azores, denies that any attempt was made on the life of ex-President Roosevelt.A version received in Lisbon is to the effect that an Italian aboard the steamer Hamburg, on which Mr. Roosevelt is traveling, tried to poison him with a deadly drug, but how the attempt was made is not explained.Rome, March 30.—Ignorant of the refutation of the story that an attempt had been made on the life of ex-President Roosevelt, at Horta, Azores, the public here was greatly impressed and indignant, as Col. Roosevelt is considered Italy's best friend. King Victor Emmanuel expressed genuine sorrow, and determined to send a cable dispatch congratulating him on his escape.The Pope was indignant when he heard the story that an Italian had attempted to kill Col. Roosevelt, who, he declared, deserves only praise and gratitude from Italy.

ARGUMENT ENDS IN DEATH.

Armenian Educational Society Engages in Free Fight.Boston, March 30.—One man was fatally shot and six others received knife wounds in a free fight which occurred at a meeting to-night of the so-called Armenian Educational Society in Brighton. Twenty men are held by the police.Trouble arose during a discussion over whether the absconding treasurer of the society should be prosecuted criminally or sued in the civil courts.

OLD CRIME RECALLED

Wealthy Texan Charged with Murder in 1877.

ACCUSED AS GIRL'S SLAYER

Sylvester Burnham, a Rich Ranch Owner, Is Believed to Be Man Who, Thirty-two Years Ago, Killed His Daughter.Texas to bring Sylvester Burnham, a wealthy Texas ranch owner, to this State for trial for a murder committed thirty-two years ago.The murder with which Burnham is charged was committed on the night of October 30, 1877. According to the story, Burnham is the man who was then employed as a laborer by a farmer named Tritt near Sandford. Tritt had a granddaughter, Rosa, with whom the murder became infatuated. The girl, engaged to another man, refused to receive his attentions, and her refusal angered the laborer. The girl complained to her grandfather, but her complaints were not sufficient to cause Burnham's discharge.Burnham is alleged to have gone to the girl's room some time during the night and cut her throat with a razor.
After the murder had been committed, the body was rolled in a roll of carpet in the room. As a second chapter of the crime, it is charged, the murderer set fire to the house. Mr. and Mrs. Tritt barely escaped with their lives.In the smoldering roll of carpet next day was found the mutilated body of the girl. The investigation was begun immediately by the authorities. The only trace found of the laborer was his trunk, which was discovered hidden in a near-by pile of straw, where he is thought to have placed it before going to the girl's room. Neighbors reported that they saw the man in the vicinity two or three times after that, but no positive evidence could be found which would reveal his whereabouts.Burnham is said to have joined the navy, and after five years' service, went to Texas, where he has since become wealthy.

SERVIA NOT TO BE REPUBLIC.

United Powers May Choose King Peter's Successor.London, March 30.—The Vienna correspondent of the Telegraph, referring to the numerous reports in that city regarding an impending dynastic crisis in Serbia, states that the powers are conducting pour parlers regarding what attitude they will take.They will on no account allow the establishment of a republic, and will probably themselves control the choice of a successor to King Peter.

NUN KILLED BY FALL.

Sister Silary Seized with Attack of Heart Failure.Philadelphia, March 30.—Seized with an attack of heart failure while cleaning windows, Sister Silary fell from a second story window of St. Veronica's Convent here to-day and broke her neck, dying almost instantly.The nun was seventy years of age, and had been connected with the convent for forty years.

Steel Trust Man a Suicide.

Detroit, Mich., March 30.—Julius W.
Schaub, a civil engineer, committed suicide last night in a Pullman car berth on a Michigan Central westbound train by shooting himself. He is said to have been an employee of the United States Steel Corporation.

mental document, this statement was made last night by President Taft and Senator Root at the twenty-sixth annual banquet of the Washington Harvard Club at the Raleigh Hotel in honor of President Eliot.This is what Mr. Root said in the course of a speech eulogizing President Eliot in the most unstinted terms:"No emperor, no monarch, no hero has ever had such a monument built as the affection and admiration of the sons of Harvard are to-day raising, to stand forever."Senator Root's Tribute.
"And if, at the end of all, his serene lic in all its good qualities, in all its truth and the sincerity of its nature, in all its highest ideals and aspirations are represented by a man, an American gentleman, a scholar, and a sage, indeed."And wherever he goes we can ask for nothing better than that the world shall believe that whatever it sees in our true character is to be found in him."

President Taft said:

"I join in the hope that the life of President Eliot may continue in usefu-ness, and I share every word said by Senator Root with reference to what may happen in the future."

Invited to the White House.

As the President of the United States concluded his address, he turned to Mr.
Eliot, and in a voice that could be heard only a few feet away, said:"I shall be glad to have you call upon me to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock."Throughout the banquet, in spite of the display of college spirit in songs and yells, there was an undercurrent of expectation. Every man of the 250 present hoped the rumor connecting
